

FURTHER INFORMATION
TEACHER OF MEDIA - FULL TIME

Students:

The Media dept comprises a lively, dynamic team that has grown considerably over the years. We have around 320 students, comprising both year groups, who study across the range of BTEC Film and Television Diploma, BTEC Film and Video Production Extended Certificate, Media A Level and Film A Level.

Staff:

The successful candidate will be joining a well-qualified and enthusiastic teaching team consisting of a Head of Department and seven part- or full-time staff including a technician. All are experienced and established specialist A Level and BTEC Media and/or Film teachers.

Courses & Exam Board:

We follow the Eduqas WJEC specification for A level Media and Film Studies and EdExcel for BTEC Level 3 National courses (Diploma/Extended Certificate).

Department/Facilities:

Teaching takes place in classrooms adjacent to the departmental office. All classrooms contain PCs for student use. We also have a studio with green screen, black and white backdrops and studio lighting for use by students both inside and outside of class time. Teaching materials are shared on the department's portal site and learning is supported through a range of enrichment activities. Within the department, we aim to give students experience of a variety of practical skills to support them in developing skills for future progression including audio-visual production, digital photography and some print production. By the end of their courses students will have developed academic and technical competencies and be conversant with issues and debates surrounding the media and film industries.

Additional information:

We are looking for a lively, committed and flexible teacher who can contribute across the BTEC Media courses within the department, with the possibility of some Film Studies or Media Studies A Level teaching. The contribution that candidates are able to make to these courses will be discussed further at interview. Importantly, we are looking for someone who is enthusiastic, creative, efficient and hard-working and, at the same time, able to relate well to 16-19-year olds. You would need to have a good understanding of media and film theory, issues and debates as well as an understanding of a range of media industries and the ability to help students develop good written skills. In addition, we are looking for someone who has a good range of practical and technical skills in at least some of the following areas: Adobe Creative Suite (primarily Premiere and Photoshop) or similar audio-visual editing software, digital photography and videography.

College Hours:

College teaching periods start at 8.55 am and end at 4.15 pm. Each teaching period is 65 minutes.

Salary: Salary up to £45,403 per annum inclusive of fringe area allowance.

Applications: Completed application forms should be returned to:
