

FURTHER INFORMATION
TEACHER OF PSYCHOLOGY
(with the possibility of a position of responsibility for the right candidate)
FULL TIME - PERMANENT

Students:

Psychology is a popular subject with over 500 students currently studying the A-level at the College. Results are very good and the department is forward-looking, using a variety of teaching and learning techniques to deliver the course.

Staff:

The Psychology departmental team consists of the Head of Department, three full-time and five part-time teachers. All are experienced specialist teachers of Psychology.

Courses & Exam Board:

The Psychology department teaches the AQA specification.

Department/Facilities:

The majority of teaching takes place in specialist classrooms, with teaching materials shared on departmental portal sites and booklets for students. Learning is supported with occasional trips and talks by guest speakers.

Additional information:

We are looking for a lively, committed and flexible teacher of Psychology, who will be a member of an enthusiastic team and actively contribute to its continued development. The successful candidate should be capable of teaching the full range of the Psychology specification. An Early Career Teacher (ECT) would have a slightly reduced timetable and would participate in the College's programme for ECTs as well as receiving support from members of the department, one of whom would be designated as their mentor. For a suitably experienced candidate, there is also the opportunity to take on a position of responsibility within the department working closely with the Head of Department. If you are interested in this role, please indicate this as part of your application. Above all, we are looking for a candidate with a thorough understanding of Psychology and an ability to deliver an innovative and enthusiastic approach to teaching.

College Hours:

College teaching periods start at 8.55 am and end at 4.15 pm. Each teaching period is 65 minutes.

Salary:

Salary up to £45,403 per annum inclusive of fringe area allowance

For the position of responsibility there will also be a Responsibility Allowance of £2,296 per annum.
