

FURTHER INFORMATION TEACHER OF GEOGRAPHY

Students:

Geography is a popular subject with around 250 students currently studying A level Geography at Esher College. Results are very good and the department is forward looking, using a variety of teaching and learning techniques to deliver its courses.

Staff:

The current departmental team consists of the Head of Department, two full time teachers, one part-time teacher and an assistant principal. All are experienced specialist teachers of Geography.

Courses & Exam Board:

The department teaches the Pearson Edexcel specification.

Department/Facilities:

Teaching takes place in two specialist classrooms located adjacent to a departmental office. The department has access to (and regular timetabled use of) another classroom equipped with a full class set of computers, as well as access to a class set of laptops which can be booked in advance of the lesson. Teaching materials are shared on the department's portal site and learning is supported with regular trips and visits. The department makes a wider contribution to the college's Extension Studies programme including the delivery of a Geographical Information System (GIS) course.

Additional information:

We are looking for a lively, committed and flexible teacher of Geography who will be a member of an enthusiastic team and actively contribute to its continued development. The successful candidate should be confident and capable of teaching the full range of the specification across physical and human geography topics. Above all, we are looking for a candidate with a thorough understanding of geography as a discipline and an innovative and enthusiastic approach to teaching.

Applications from ECTs are welcomed and new teachers will be fully supported.

College Hours:

College teaching periods start at 8.55 am and end at 4.15 pm. Each teaching period is 65 minutes.

Salary:

Salary up to £48,355 per annum inclusive of fringe area allowance (on a pro-rata basis)
