Appendices to Examinations policy

1. Verifying candidate identity procedure

Individual exam cards populated with a student's ID number, photograph, exam entry details, and access arrangements if appropriate, are used in accordance with seating plans in every exam venue. Staff refer to these for identification purposes and cross check information with the college database and exam database to resolve queries.

Where it is impossible to identify a candidate due to the wearing of religious clothing, such as a veil, the candidate should be approached by a member of staff of the same gender and taken to a private room where they should be politely asked to remove the religious clothing for identification purposes.

Centres must inform candidates in advance of this procedure and well before their first examination.

2. Overnight supervision arrangements policy

In line with JCQ regulations, overnight supervision arrangements will only be applied as a last resort and once all other options have been exhausted.

If a clash involves overnight supervision the Exam Officer will discuss the arrangements with the candidate and then contact a parent/guardian or named adult and clarify the rules and regulations for such an arrangement, subject to approval from the exam board(s) for such an arrangement. A declaration agreeing to abide by such regulations will be signed by the approved parent/guardian/named supervisor and kept on record for inspection purposes.

The declaration makes clear that any breach of clash regulations and conditions will result in disqualification from the exam and possibly the entire qualification.

3 Candidate late arrival

Students and their parents/carers are advised of the procedures to follow for late arrival to examinations via the website under The College/Exams /Useful information. Students are briefed on the procedures during a PDP session prior to 6:1 and 6:2 Formal Exams and external exams.

Within JCQ guidelines and using their professional discretion, the EO may offer an opportunity to latecomers to sit the exam – this will depend on organisational arrangements and provided that adequate supervision arrangements are in place. If the announcements have started, late students will be held outside the exam venue until the announcements are finished. They will have an opportunity to read the regulations whilst waiting and before being admitted to the venue. All examination instructions are given to the student outside the exam venue and an invigilator supervises the start of their exam once inside the venue.

Latecomers will receive an email from the EO via the college database, copied to parents/carers, recording their lateness and advising against repeat. The recording of persistent lateness will be escalated to senior management for response and appropriate sanction according to college disciplinary procedures.

For very late arrivals, one hour or more after the published start of the exam, candidates will be advised that the very late arrival must be reported to the exam board, under JCQ regulations, and that the exam board may not accept the script.

If admitted to the exam room, late/very late arrivals will be allowed the full time for the exam.

4. Candidate absence policy

Students and their parents/carers are advised of the procedures to follow for candidates absent for examinations via the website, under The College/Exams/Useful Information. Students are also briefed on the procedures during a PDP session prior to 6:1 and 6:2 Formal Exams and external exams.

Invigilators taking attendance registers in exam venues are responsible for reporting absences to the Exams Officer/AEO for following up as a matter of urgency, using contact information available on the college database.

EO /AEO will note the outcome on the database.

5. Policy on food and drink in exam rooms

Students are advised in the pre-exam briefing during PDP, that they may bring a small, clear, bottle of water, label removed, into an exam room. No other food or drink is allowed unless for a documented medical reason ie diabetes, known to the College in advance of the examination season. In such cases permission must be sought from the EO in advance of the exam season.

6. Policy on candidates leaving the exam room temporarily

Students are advised in the pre-exam briefing that if they have to leave the exam room temporarily due to illness or distress, they should alert an invigilator, who will then accompany them, and they will not lose exam time under these circumstances.

Students leaving the exam room for non-medical reasons such as a loo break, do so in their own time.

7. Emergency evacuation policy

The College emergency evacuation procedure and lockdown procedure is contained within the Disaster Management Strategy document located on the All-Staff Team, under Documents/Files/Policies and Procedures/Disaster and Risk management.

Emergency evacuation and lockdown procedures for students and staff involved in examinations are contained in the invigilator handbook. During exam periods several copies should be available in the Sports Hall and attached to the emergency exit doors.

8. Special consideration policy

In the pre-examination briefing that takes place before external exams in a PDP session, candidates are advised that if they feel their exam performance was significantly affect by temporary illness, accident/injury, bereavement, domestic crisis, a flare up of a long-term illness, or other personal circumstances, at the time of the external assessment/exam, they should speak to the EO as soon as possible.

Applications for Special Consideration can only be made with EO support. Candidates will be asked to provide medical evidence for special consideration for absence.

This information is also available on the website, under The College/Exams/ Useful information /FAQs

9. Arrangements for unauthorised materials taken into the exam room

No unauthorised materials are allowed in the exam rooms. A supervised, lockable bag store is used for candidates to leave bags, coats, and other belongings whilst they sit their examinations.

Once in the exam room candidates are asked to empty their pockets of keys, change, and other loose items, and place them under their desks – this does not include papers, mobile phones or other electronic devices as these are locked in the bag store before entering the venue.

Wristwatches, smartwatches and watches with a storage facility must be treated like mobile phones and kept with other unauthorised items in the bag store. Failure to do so will be considered as malpractice and reported to the JCQ as per the regulations.

10. Results day programme

Results are issued to students electronically via the college portal and downloaded into their personal account.

Students who have left college early and no longer have access to the portal have their results emailed to them on their personal email. They must not be sent to parents/carers.

Senior staff and Progression Guidance are available at published times to see students as necessary, and exam office staff are available to answer results queries and advise on post results services.

11. Access to scripts /reviews of results and appeals procedures

Detailed information regarding post results services is sent to students in advance of the results dates for each external exam season via Teams and is posted on the college website under The College/ Exams/Results, Support and Post results services.

12. Certificates and Retention of certificates

The College receives certificates for qualifications by the end of October following the summer exams.

Certificates are posted home, signed-for delivery, during November.

Certificates returned to college undelivered are kept in storage for 2 academic years, after which they may then be securely destroyed. A record of all certificates that are destroyed must be kept for a further period of four years from the date of their destruction.

13. Re-sit policy

Resit opportunities for externally assessed units are made available to BTEC RQF candidates, if applicable, in the January and June examination series. Students taking external BTEC exams will have one re-sit paid for them by the college for each externally marked unit.
