The role

This role consists of teaching from January 25 and support would be provided by the departments and wider college. The successful applicant would be required to start a two-year teacher training programme which would start in September 25. During the two-year teacher training programme, you would continue teaching, whilst also accessing our teacher training programme, facilitated by Reigate College. For more details of the training programme please see details on our website here: Trainee Teacher Scheme – Esher Sixth Form College.

Students:

Economics and Business Studies are popular subjects at Esher Sixth Form College with over 500 students currently studying for an A Level in the subjects.

Staff:

The Economics department consists of four members of staff and Business Studies four members of staff, including a Head of Department in each department.

Courses & Exam Board:

We offer the Edexcel A Level Economics and Business Studies.

Additional information:

Both departments achieve consistently strong results and have a track record of innovation in teaching and learning. In particular, the departments have extensive collections of relevant audio-visual materials which has helped teachers to develop flipped learning activities, enabling students to become more independent learners, while benefiting from their teachers' support and guidance.

Facilities:

The departments are situated in the Humanities area of the College. There are dedicated classrooms and the department has access to computer suites to support learning as well. The department is also very well resourced with textbooks and extensive online resources to support the course.

College Hours:

College teaching periods start at 8.55 am and end at 4.15 pm. Each teaching period is 65 minutes.

Salary:

Salary will be £31,722 per annum, inclusive of fringe area allowance. However, the salary may vary depending on the proportion of time allocated to teaching.
